IMPORTANT NOTICE

You may be aware of various rumours in reference to attempted child abduction on Thursday 18 June at approximately 6 pm.

Please take a few moments to read the below:

We would like to take the opportunity to thank your staff, pupils and parents for being observant and reporting incidents that have given them concern. However, it is important to stress that there have been NO attempted child abduction in Bradley Stoke and the report in Bristol Evening Post on Saturday 20 June wasn't an abduction. It was found to be a perfectly innocent event.

We encourage you to be watchful around your area and report anything you consider suspicious. Should a vehicle be involved please record the registration number as this is very helpful to us.

Please be assured we take every report seriously and investigate accordingly.

Should you need to contact us please ring: 0845 456 7000 – a 24hr service.
